2007 RPAC Award!!! "Highest Percentage of Goal in 2007"

On Wednesday evening IAR held its annual Legislative Reception and RPAC Awards. I am pleased to report that the Nampa Association of REALTORS® won the award in the large board category for the highest percentage of goal met in 2007. Nampa was 146% of its goal!!!! This is fantastic for our association since we are up against the largest Boards in the State.

With this I would like to recognize our 2007 RPAC committee!! These individuals put in a lot of time and energy into this cause and they deserve a pat on the back!

2007 RPAC Committee: Chair-Michael Eshom, Laurie Byington, and Nick Aldinger.

In addition, thank you to all of those who contributed to RPAC in 2007 this truly is an important cause that protects our industry!!
